Our classic, elegant designs never date and are perfectly complemented by our beautiful and very stylish contemporary sets. In fact it was my Great Grandfather, Arthur Price, who was often heard to say that he believed you could tell someone's character by how they set their dining table.

Simon Price

A History of Excellence

It was Arthur Price's dual passion for quality and cutlery which first led him to found the company in 1902 and later pass it on to his two sons, Arthur Junior and Frederick. His profound belief that only the very best will do still remains the watchword of our present owner and his great grandson, Simon Price.

With only a brief break during World War II when the Sheffield factory produced munitions for the armed forces, we have never sacrificed quality to follow short-term trends. This dedication was rewarded in 1976 when we were commissioned to design and create the cutlery for the launch of Concorde. The following year we were delighted to be granted the Royal Warrant by appointment to H.M. The Queen in her Jubilee year. And in 1988 we were granted our second Royal Warrant, this time to H.R.H. The Prince of Wales. We know that Arthur Price would feel immensely proud to see the company he founded recognised in such an esteemed manner. The family connection continues to flourish with Simon's eldest son, James, joining the business in 2012 to become the fifth generation Price to be involved in the company.

Fine Attention to Detail

In addition to our commitment to the highest quality, it is also our unparalleled skills and renowned expertise handed down through generations which help set us apart.

We ensure that our knives are always beautifully balanced with a keen cutting edge that will last for a long time. It is this kind of attention to detail, knowledge and craftsmanship which continue to make Arthur Price of England the name you can trust for the finest cutlery.

A Collection to Treasure

Starting your Arthur Price of England cutlery collection is a deserved luxury and one of the most worthwhile investments you can make. After all, it will provide so much pleasure and exceptional service for many, many years, both for your family and guests alike.

We provide two grades of silver plated cutlery, each produced to an incredibly high specification.

Benefit from silver's exceptional qualities; it's unique radiance and warmth. It is a stunning material that ages beautifully over time and adds a whole new dimension to fine dining.

Or if you prefer we also use the finest 18/10 stainless steel to give you a truly lasting performance. Take our word for it, this is the best there is.

The Arthur Price of England Unconditional Guarantee

So confident are we in the quality of our Arthur Price of England cutlery that we offer an unconditional guarantee on every single item you buy – in some cases forever. In the unlikely event of something going wrong with the quality of the workmanship or materials during the guarantee period, we promise to repair or replace it absolutely free of charge.

Our guarantees are as follows:

- Sovereign® Silver Plated – lifetime guarantee
- 25 Year Silver Plated – guaranteed for 25 years
- Sovereign® Stainless Steel – lifetime guarantee

Just think, where else can you make a similar investment that comes with an unconditional guarantee that could last for 50 to 100 years or more!

Baguette

With fluid lines Baguette's understated pattern complements both traditional and modern settings.

Bead

The Bead pattern was originally designed by Huguenot silversmiths to represent pearls, which were popular in the French court of the 1760s.

Britannia

Quintessentially English, the Britannia pattern is based on the threaded Old English patterns of the 1750s which have enjoyed international popularity ever since.

Chester

This pattern was commissioned by the Lord Lieutenant of Cheshire, the 2nd Duke of Westminster during the early 19th century.

Dubarry

The Dubarry design originated during the early 19th century. Inspired by the fashions of the period this pattern is the epitome of sleek delicacy.

Grecian

The Grecian design was first produced during the Art Deco period, its bevelled edges and angular corners reinterpret the geometry of classical Greek architecture.

Harley

Harley originated from the Art Deco period of the 1920s and 1930s which demanded bold geometric design and a strong emphasis on quality.

Kings

Kings is a direct descendant of an older pattern called Fiddle Thread and Shell. This particular adaptation first appeared around 1817 and is still enormously popular today.

Old English

Old English evolved in the 1750s from the Rattail pattern. The 'pip' seen on the front of the fork handle appears on the reverse of the spoon because, in the Georgian era, spoons would have been laid face down on the table.

Rattail

Rattail is the oldest pattern in the range and dates from around 1710 when modern table etiquette started to develop.

Ritz

A design exclusive to Arthur Price of England, Ritz is based on the French Empire styles of the 1780s and reflects the tastes of the court of Louis XVI.

Royal Pearl

Royal Pearl was first introduced in 1990 to celebrate H.R.H. Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother's 90th birthday and reflected her love of pearls.

Titanic

The panel reed pattern was supplied for use in the first class dining accommodation on board the world's most famous ocean-going, luxury liner.

Clive Christian

A British designer with a passion for luxury, Clive Christian is undoubtedly a unique and influential force. Empire Flame is exceptionally lavish, intricately detailed with stunning gold embellishments.

Caring for Your Collection

“Creating beautiful cutlery that lasts a lifetime. That’s what my family has been doing for generations and we’re as committed today to absolute quality as my great grandfather was when he started the company in 1902.”

Simon Price, Chief Executive, Arthur Price

It’s a myth that silver plated cutlery is difficult to look after. Contrary to popular belief silver does not have to be polished constantly with specialist cleaners. Arthur Price of England’s silver cutlery has been designed for everyday use and the more regularly you use it, the easier it is to care for. And when it looks this good, why hide it away?

By following a few simple guidelines you can easily keep your cutlery in peak condition.

- All our cutlery is dishwasher safe, simply use a gentle detergent and ensure the rinse agent is topped up.
- Exposure to sulphur in the atmosphere and certain foods such as sprouts, eggs, fish and vinegar can cause tarnishing, most noticeably to the fork prongs, which should be removed with silver polish. To reduce tarnishing, wash as soon as possible after use and try to store your cutlery in a closed drawer or cabinet.
- Avoid immersing in water or a damp atmosphere for prolonged periods as this will have a corrosive effect, particularly to knife blades.
- Detergents and rinse agents containing lemon are not recommended.
- Always avoid using scouring pads or abrasive sponges when washing up by hand as this will scratch the silver plated surface.
- Every now and again you’ll notice your cutlery looking a little dull. This is completely normal and the time to give it a quick polish. Arthur Price has created an excellent Silver Care range which includes time-saving items such as a cloth, polish, foam and mitts. This specially designed range of care items will help minimise the effort required to care for your cutlery, giving you more time to enjoy using it in perfect condition.
- Please remember that silver is a soft metal and its surface will gradually mark over time. This will evolve into the soft, mellow appearance known as patination, which gives antique silver its extraordinary lustre. It will take at least six months of regular use to mature and it’ll continue to improve with age. A good tip is to try to use the pieces in rotation so the set matures evenly.

If you purchase stainless steel cutlery from the collection, you should adhere to the recommendations laid out above and also note the following:

- Avoid mixing stainless steel and silver plated cutlery in the same dishwasher basket as it will corrode the stainless steel.
- When washing by hand do not use liquid bleach as it can smear and stain.
- Avoid immersing in water, particularly water with a high salt content, for prolonged periods of time as this has a corrosive effect.
- And please remember that ‘stainless’ means the steel stains less! Unfortunately it doesn’t mean that it won’t stain at all. If staining does occur, remove with a good stainless steel polish.

Above all, we hope you enjoy your cutlery as much as we enjoy making it for you.
